

Islip, NY – Islip Town Councilman John Edwards (front, left) recently recognized the outstanding volunteer efforts of Michael McNulty at a Town Board meeting in Islip.

Michael, an eighth-grade student at Bay Shore Middle School, coordinated the “Great Strides Walk for Cystic Fibrosis,” a 3.2 mile walk along Walker Beach in Brightwaters. The Walk attracted nearly 250 people and raised $17,000 for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.
